

✓

11/19? 8
Tob
C

Surveillance of Cuba has necessarily been continued in absence of the verification of the removal of offensive weapons and the establishment of safeguards against their reintroduction. Such surveillance was endorsed by the OAS on October 3rd and supported by the OAS resolution of October 23rd. Until better means are available this ~~surveillance must continue and all necessary action~~ be taken to assure its effectiveness.

the free countries / the hemisphere must